

“At A Glance” Resource Guide

Afterschool programs provide valuable resources to children, families, and communities.

Here are a few ways that you can support children and youth in Wyoming:

1. Locate an afterschool program in your community.

2. Identify and contact resources or prevention coalitions in your community such as:

- Local DFS Office
- Public Health Nurses
- Americorps/VISTA - Volunteers in Service to America
- Mental Health Professionals
- Non-profits that Support and Serve Youth
- Local Juvenile Defenders

3. Make connections at your local school district and afterschool program including:

- School-based programs (those housed in school districts)
- Community-based non-profit afterschool and summer learning programs (Boys & Girls Clubs; YMCAs; Big Brothers Big Sisters; Parks and Recreation; etc)

4. Visit an afterschool program.

5. Contact the Wyoming Afterschool Alliance for assistance:

- Technical resources and training opportunities
- Current research and data on best practices for positive youth development
- Referrals, consultations and facilitation

6. Attend the WYAA State Conference - October 4-5, 2017, which focuses on Juvenile Justice.

7. Refer a family to enroll their child in an afterschool program.

8. Sign up for the WYAA list serve for up-to-date information and newsletters.
